28. In any case, regardless of events beyond our control, if we do not deliver the Goods on time, you can (in addition to any other remedies) treat the Contract at an end if:
 - a. We have refused to deliver the Goods, or if delivery on time is essential considering all the relevant circumstances at the time the Contract was made, or you said to us before the Contract was made that delivery on time was essential; or

- b. After we have failed to deliver on time, you have specified a later period which is appropriate to the circumstances and we have not delivered within that period
- 29. If you treat Contract at an end, we will (in addition to other remedies) promptly return all payments made under the Contract.
- 30. If you were entitled to treat the Contract at an end, but do not do so, you are not prevented from cancelling the Order for any Goods or rejecting Goods that have been delivered and, if you do this, we will (in addition to other remedies) without delay, return all payments made under the Contract for any such cancelled or rejected Goods. If the Goods have been delivered, you must return them to us or allow us to collect them from you and we will pay the costs of this.
- 31. If any Goods form a commercial unit (a unit is a commercial unit if division of the unit would materially impair the value of the goods or the character of the unit) you cannot cancel or reject the Order for some of those Goods without also cancelling or rejecting the Order for the rest of them.
- 32. We do accept International Orders, however if we deliver to an address outside England, Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, Isle of Man or the Channels Island then you may need to pay import duties or other taxes, as we will not pay them.

Withdrawal, returns and cancellation

38. You can withdraw the Order by telling us before the Contract is made, if you simply wish to change your mind and without giving us a reason, and without incurring any liability.
39. This is a distance contract (as defined below) which has the cancellation rights (Cancellation Rights) set out below. These Cancellation Rights, however, do not apply, to a contract for the following's goods (with no others) in the following circumstances:
 - a. Those for goods prepared to order to the specific requirements of the customer.
 - b. Those for urgent or specifically requested repair or maintenance services.
40. Also, the Cancellation Rights for a Contract cease to be available in the following circumstances:
 - a. In the case of a contract for the supply of certain goods which are not suitable for return due to health protection or hygiene reasons such as earrings, or body jewellery.
 - b. In the case of any sales contract, if the goods become mixed inseparably (according to their nature) with other items after delivery.
 - c. The goods are being sold at a discounted rate due to any imperfections or faults, where we highlight the issues explicitly before the Contract has been made.

Right to cancel

41. Subject as stated in these Terms and Conditions, you can cancel this contract within 14 days without giving any reason.
42. The cancellation period will expire after 14 days from the day on which you acquire, or a third party, other than the carrier indicated by you, acquires physical possession of the last of the Goods.
43. To exercise the right to cancel, you must inform us of your decision to cancel this Contract by a clear statement setting out your decision (via email). In any event, you must be able to show clear evidence of when the cancellation was made.
44. To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired.

Effects of cancellation in the cancellation period

45. Except as set out below, if you cancel this Contract, we will reimburse to you all payments received from you, including the costs of delivery (except for the supplementary costs arising if you chose a type of delivery other than the least expensive type of standard delivery offered by us)

Deduction for Goods supplied

46. We may make a deduction from the reimbursement for loss in value of any Goods supplied, if the loss is the result of unnecessary handling by you (ie handling the Goods beyond what is necessary to establish the nature, characteristics and functioning of the Goods: eg it goes beyond the sort of handling that might be reasonably allowed in a shop). This is because you are liable for that loss and, if that deduction is not made, you must pay us the amount of that loss.
47. We will also make a deduction from the reimbursement for any items in our “Hope Collection” due to the charity donation made once the order is fulfilled. This is usually 10% of the proceeds of the item, unless expressed otherwise. All remaining money, minus this amount, will be reimbursed.

Timing of reimbursement

48. If we have not offered to collect the Goods, we will make the reimbursement without undue delay, and not later than:
- a. 14 days after the day we receive back from you any Goods supplied, or
 - b. (if earlier) 14 days after the day you provide evidence that you have sent back the Goods.
48. If we have offered to collect the Goods or if no Goods were supplied, we will make the reimbursement without undue delay, and no later than 14 days after the day on which we are informed about your decision to cancel this Contract.
49. We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees because of the reimbursement.

Returning Goods

50. If you have received Goods in connection with the Contract which you have cancelled, you must send back the Goods or hand them over to us at 14 Saffron House, 43 Camborne Road, Sutton, SM2 6RF, United Kingdom without delay and in any event not later than 14 days from the day on which you communicate to us your cancellation of this Contract. The deadline is met if you send back the Goods before the period of 14 days have expired. You agree that you will have to bear the cost of returning the Goods.

51. For the purposes of these Cancellation Rights, these words have the following meanings:
- a. Distance contract means a contract concluded between a trader and a consumer under an organised distance sales or service-provision scheme without the simultaneous physical presence of the trader and the consumer, with the exclusive use of one or more means of distance communication up to and including the time at which the contract is concluded;
 - b. Sales contract means a contract under which a trader transfers or agrees to transfer the ownership of goods to a consumer and the consumer pays or agrees to pay the price, including any contract that has both goods and services as its object.

Conformity and Guarantee

52. We have a legal duty to supply the Goods in conformity with the Contract and will not have conformed if it does not meet the following obligation.
53. Upon delivery, the Goods will:
- a. Be of satisfactory quality
 - b. Be reasonable fit for any particular purpose for which you buy the Goods which, before the Contract is made, you made known to us (unless you do not actually rely, or it is unreasonable for you to rely, on our skill and judgment) and be fit for any purpose held out by us or set out in the Contract; and
 - c. Conform to their description
54. It is not a failure to conform if the failure has its origin in your materials.
55. We will immediately, or within a reasonable time, give you the benefit of the free guarantee given by the manufacturer of the Goods. Details of the guarantee, including the name and address of the manufacturer, the duration and territorial scope of the guarantee, are set out in the manufacturer's guarantee provided with the Goods. This guarantee will take effect at the time the Goods are delivered, and will not reduce your legal rights.
- Successors and our sub-contactors
56. Either party can transfer the benefit of this Contract to someone else and will remain liable to the other for its obligations under the Contract. The Supplier will be liable for the acts of any sub-contractors who it chooses to help perform its duties.

Circumstances beyond the control of either party

57. In the event of any failure by a party because of something beyond its reasonable control:
- a. The party will advise the other party as soon as reasonably practicable; and
 - b. The party's obligations will be suspended so far as is reasonable, provided that party will act reasonably, and the party will not be liable for any failure which it could not reasonably avoid, but this will not affect the Customer's above rights relating to delivery and any right to cancel, below.

Excluding liability

64. The supplier does not exclude liability for: (i) any fraudulent act or omission; or (ii) for death or personal injury caused by negligence or breach of the supplier's legal obligations. Subject to this, the Supplier is not liable for (i) loss which was not reasonably foreseeable to both parties at the time when the Contract was made, or (ii) loss (eg loss of profit) to the Customer's business, trade, craft or profession which would not be suffered by a Consumer – because the Supplier believes the Customer is not buying the Goods wholly or mainly for its business, trade, craft or profession.
